Our Offer

In the heart of Amsterdam, in the historic Beurs van Berlage, just a stone's throw from Central Station, you will find Meet Berlage. We couldn't be more proud to be located in this stunning national monument. Situated in 1100m2 of the former stock exchange, we offer nine unique, characteristic meeting and event rooms, each with its own story. These stories align beautifully with what Meet Berlage is: a place for 'entrepreneurial minds.' It's the perfect setting for an event or meeting of up to one hundred members of your organization. Our hospitable, enthusiastic team is dedicated to help you make your event a success. And with Nespresso coffee in the rooms, a barista making coffee in our foyer, and ample catering options, we have all the facilities and amenities that you could ever need.

Our mission

Berlage envisioned the future of the Beurs as a 'palazzo pubblico.' Inspired by the medieval city hall of Siena, he wanted it to be a place for people to meet and connect. We are making this dream a reality at Meet Berlage where 'entrepreneurial minds' find a place to work, collaborate, and meet. Working together with you and our partners, we organize meetings that will meet all of your needs and expectations. Professional, informal and welcoming: that is what we stand for. In this brochure you can discover all that Meet Berlage has to offer. We are more than happy to discuss and fulfill your specific needs. We look forward to seeing you!

Attendant's Room

The atmosphere of this space never ceases to pleasantly surprise us. We know from experience the sense of satisfaction felt when walking out of the door of this room. Not to mention, the unforgettable view of the historic city center of Amsterdam afforded by the stately windows. Truly extraordinary, right?!

Secretary's Room

This space is, simply put, 'gezellig'. The room features a marvelous working atmosphere in awe-inspiring surroundings. The room is acoustically well insulated from the bustle of city life of the streets below; as such, this meeting space offers a placid environment.

A spacious hall abounding with windows, as you can see! The Reading Room is easily customized to a variety of meeting setups. The room affords guests a sense of tranquility due to its location on the side of the building. This room also features its own ensuite break-out room (the Library).

Hendrik Petrus Berlage

The architect and visionary behind the building, which was opened in 1903, was Hendrik Petrus Berlage, often referred to as the first modernist. This masterpiece has become an architectural milestone and a symbol of our cultural heritage.

Shortly after the grand opening of the building, Berlage himself was asked if the rise of socialism would not soon make the new stock exchange building obsolete. He replied simply, "Oh, no, for then it can serve as a grand community building. If I'm honest, I must say that deep within I have always cherished, developed and harboured such thoughts and desires."

Only a short time later, the stock exchange would relocate not far down the street. As a result, today the Beurs van Berlage has found a new purpose as the 'palazzo pubblico' which Berlage himself had long hoped for!
